

Stimulating industry and private sector engagement in POPs Management

organized by UNIDO

Tuesday, 5 May 2015 from 6:15-7:45 pm
CICG, Room 15

Side Event Objectives:

- * Highlight UNIDO's efforts in engaging the private sector in its projects on POPs management
- * Present selected UNIDO partners to discuss their motivation in participating in POPs projects.
- * Present GEF guidance on private sector engagement in Chemicals and waste focal area

Programme:

Stephan Sicars, Director, UNIDO Environment Branch – ISID and UNIDO's POPs Portfolio - UNIDO's long term working relations and support to industry and private sector

Ibrahima Sow, Senior Environmental Specialist, GEF Secretariat – GEF's strategy on private sector engagement in the Chemicals and waste focal area

Aleksandar Mickovski, POPs Focal Point, Macedonia – Private Sector involvement in the Macedonia PCB project (The case of Rade Koncar)

Battuvshin Adilbish, Senior Engineer of the R&D department, Power Plant #4 - Industry involvement in the BAT/BEP fossil fuel-fired utility and industrial boilers project (Power plant #4 in Mongolia)

Ameha Tegegne Dagnaw, Director, Environmental Protection Directorate - Industry involvement in the LDCs Capacity Building and Technical assistance project (BAT/BEP in Ethiopian Kombolcha Textile Company)

Moderator: Leila Devia, Director, BC Regional Center in Argentina